As part of a strategy that includes funding to existing service providers in the county to maintain and enhance the services they provide, the OPCC has worked with the Daisy programme to provide a sexual violence support service in Breckland where there is currently a gap in local specialist provision as identified through the OPCC's sexual violence service needs assessment.

DETAIL OF THE SUBMISSION

1. OBJECTIVE:

- 1.1 This grant is for a new service within the Breckland District of Norfolk and delivered by the Daisy Programme in response to demand for services to support victims of SA/SV/CSA and HCSA.
- 1.2 The service will provide support for women, men and those identifying as male or female, young people (boys and girls) aged 16 years and over who have been victims of sexual abuse/violence/rape and/or current/historic child sexual abuse.
- 1.3 The service will be free of charge, confidential, non-discriminatory and accessible to residents in Breckland where the Daisy Programme has premises and support
- 1.4 The service will also support the need to:
 - Respond to a gap and lack of services in the Breckland District
 - Make the service accessible locally to victims
 - Build resilience within the market
 - Provide additional capacity and capability
- 1.5 Support strategic objectives as set out within the Police and Crime Plan 2016-2020
- 1.6 Support responsibilities as devolved under the Ministry of Justice Victims' Fund

2 BACKGROUND:

- 2.1 Demand for services that support victims of SA/SV/CSA and especially HCSA have risen sharply over the last four years. This has been influenced by a number of factors such as:
 - High profile cases of Child Sexual Abuse, such as the Jimmy Saville case through Op Yewtree in 2014/15 – which has continued through the media -Child Sexual Abuse (male) in Football, High-profile media stories (for example, Harvey Weinstein, #MeToo and TV dramas such as 'Three Girls') These high-profile cases/inquiries have generated extensive awareness.

- the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA) set up to examine how the country's institutions handled their duty of care to protect children from sexual abuse
 - Increased referrals from other agencies within the county.
 - Police Forces improving their response to investigations and safeguarding and vulnerability
 - National Campaigns such as #MeToo Movement increasing awareness of sexual assault
 - Survivors having confidence to report to either the police or a specialist support agency with the knowledge that they will be believed and not judged
- 2.2 The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk is lead commissioner for services for victims of crime and during 2019 went out to market through an open and transparent tender process to commission a 'specialist provider' or consortium of providers to deliver a county-wide support service for victims of sexual abuse/violence/ CSA/HCSA.
- 2.3 After completion of the open tender process, the OPCCN was unable to secure a provider or consortium of providers to deliver this service as laid out within the specification.
- 2.4 The OPCCN carried out a review post tender reviewing victim need and including the county the need to:
- develop the market
 - build resilience, capacity and capability within the sector
 - improve accessibility of local services
 - increase specialist provision for victims of sexual violence
- 2.5 Following this review it was highlighted that there were three districts within Norfolk where the requirements listed above (in 2.4) were needed. These were:
- Breckland
 - North Norfolk
 - West Norfolk

3 AREAS FOR CONSIDERATION:

- 3.1 To increase capacity of service provision where demand exceeds capacity
- 3.2 Increase accessibility of service in rural areas, where lack of transportation options and services are available
- 3.3 To develop services and build capability

4 OTHER OPTIONS CONSIDERED:

- 4.1 Not to fund this pilot – this option has been rejected based on evidence of need that additional capacity and accessibility for services is required to support victims of sexual abuse/violence in the Breckland District.

5 STRATEGIC AIMS/OBJECTIVE SUPPORTED:

- 5.1 The PCC has a statutory obligation to set Police and Crime Objectives through a Police and Crime Plan. This Police and Crime Plan can be found on the PCC's website and outlines the core principals covering the period 2016-2020.
- 5.2 Quality standards that will be supported as set out in the following documents:
- o The Victims Code,
 - o European Directive 2012/29/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council 25 October 2012
 - o HM Government's 'Ending Violence against Women and Girls Strategy' (VAWG Strategy)
 - o NICE Guidance on Child Abuse and Neglect (<https://www.nice.org.uk/guidance/ng76>), which makes recommendations for a range of therapeutic interventions for children, young people and families after sexual abuse

 - o The British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP) Ethical Framework (<https://www.bacp.co.uk/about-us/about-bacp/>). The counsellor recruited for the SV pilot will be accredited with the BACP or UKCP with the relevant competency levels in place to support this group of clients (this includes highly complex cases and those who have experienced historic childhood sexual abuse).

6. FINANCIAL AND OTHER RESOURCE IMPLICATIONS:

- 6.1 This Grant is to fund a two-year specialist service and will commence 1st November 2020 - 31st October 2022 subject to terms and conditions within the Grant Agreement being adhered to.
- 6.2 The total of this award over the two-year pilot period is £141,066, which runs over three financial years as follows:

2020/21	2021/22	2022/23
£32,951	£68,283	£39,832

7. OTHER IMPLICATIONS AND RISKS:
