

Reply to: Leah Smith
Telephone: 01953 424455
Date: 29 February 2024

Dear Member of Public,

RE: Freedom of Information Request FOI/OPCCN/233

I am writing in connection with your email dated 26 February 2024, in which you requested the following information:

“Can you kindly provide me with a copy of your most recent Executive Summary/Evaluation of your Perpetrator Programme(s) funded fully or in part by the Home Office Perpetrator Fund.”

I have reviewed our records and can advise the following:

CAPVA (Child and Adolescent to Parent Violence and Abuse), which is a Home Office Perpetrator funded intervention and Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk managed, is in the process of mobilising evaluation of the intervention with a local academic institution. This pilot project has not had any evaluation summary produced yet and this work is ongoing.

This pilot project will deliver the Respect Young Peoples Programme (RYPP) for families where children/adolescents are abusive or violent towards their parents/carers, known as CAPVA in partnership with; Norfolk Youth Justice Service (NYJS), Norfolk Children’s Service (NCS), Police, Norfolk Integrated Domestic Abuse Service (NIDAS), managed by Leeway, Brave Futures and the OPCCN, thereby offering support and enhanced safeguarding to any associated victims and children. Respect will provide training in the delivery of the RYPP to all named providers and support them with delivery for the duration of the project. The anticipated outcomes of the project are to:

- Reduce verbal aggression, severity of violence and abuse in close relationships

- Improve emotional well-being (coping with anxiety, anger, depression, emotional self-regulation), inclusive or therapeutic and clinical support offers for children/adolescents
- Improve family communication, relationships and feelings of safety for all
- Build parenting confidence and skills by a trained workforce who are supported and supervised by a nationally accredited organisation
- Increase the children/adolescent's insight to their own behaviour and reduce their risk to others.

Yours sincerely

L. Smith

Leah Smith

Complaints and Compliance Manager and FOI Decision Maker
Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk

Internal Review

If you think we have not supplied information in accordance with Section 1 (the General Right of Access) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, or you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, then you should write within 40 days of the date of the response to:

Mark Stokes
Chief Executive
Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk
Building 7
Falconers Chase
Wymondham
Norfolk
NR18 0WW

Telephone: 01953 424455

Email: opccn@norfolk.police.uk

If you are dissatisfied in any way with our response or the way we have handled your request, you can contact us by phone, email or in writing. We may, in the first instance, try and resolve your complaint informally. However, at any stage you can request, or we may decide to treat your complaint formally under our internal review process.

An internal review is conducted by the Chief Executive who will review the request and response, taking account of your complaint(s), and will respond in writing as soon as possible. The Information Commissioner's Office recommends that a response should be made in 20 working days. If we are unable to respond in this timeframe, we will inform you and provide a date by which you should expect to receive our response.

If, after the internal review, you remain dissatisfied then you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, the government regulator for the Freedom of Information Act. Details of how to contact the Information Commissioner's Office can be found at www.ico.org.uk