Dear Member of Public,

RE: Freedom of Information Request FOI/OPCCN/238

I am writing in connection with your email dated 25 July 2024, in which you requested the following information:

Can you provide details of grants awarded in the financial years 2022-2023 and 2023-2024:

- For which at least one of the outputs/outcomes was to provide services to victims of stalking. This could be any service to help victims such as counselling, information and advice, or casework; or address perpetrator offending such as perpetrator intervention programmes, however there must be specific reference to working with victims of stalking.
- Please provide details of the grant including the amount, the service provider, the services provided and the specific stalking outcome/output.
- Please indicate with a y/n if the service is open to victims of stalking who are not ex-intimate in the table below.

I have reviewed our records and can advise the following:

2022-2023:

Name of grant	Grant amount	Service provider	Services provided	Specific stalking outcome	Provides services for non-ex intimate victims of stalking
Contract name: Norfolk Integrated Domestic Abuse Services (NIDAS)	Contract amount for the whole service (3+2 years) £6.6 million	Leeway Domestic Violence and Abuse Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IDVA support for high and medium risk victims of domestic abuse (16+) • Direct support for children/young people effected by domestic abuse (5-18) • Target hardening (high risk clients) • Team of specialist IDVA's • Recovery Programmes • Survivor Forum • Management of the Domestic Abuse Champion Network • Training for Professionals 	Part of the contract is to provide a dedicated recourse to offer specialist stalking support to victims in the form of trained ISAC specialists. NIDAS has a trained ISAC who supports those clients who require enhanced stalking support (although all IDVA's have accredited training which includes how to respond and support clients who are being stalked by a partner/ex-partner or family member). The ISAC also offer case consultations to other professionals and IDVA's as well as creating and delivering stalking training sessions to professionals in the county. The NIDAS ISAC is also part of the Domestic Abuse Perpetrator Partnership Approach arena, and will offer advice and guidance where required.	No

2023-2024:

As above, but also includes a training budget for an additional ISAC to access accredited training.

Yours sincerely

L. Smith

Internal Review

If you think we have not supplied information in accordance with Section 1 (the General Right of Access) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, or you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, then you should write within 40 days of the date of the response to:

Mark Stokes
Chief Executive
Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk
Building 7
Falconers Chase
Wymondham
Norfolk
NR18 0WW

Telephone: 01953 424455

Email: opccn@norfolk.police.uk

If you are dissatisfied in any way with our response or the way we have handled your request, you can contact us by phone, email or in writing. We may, in the first instance, try and resolve your complaint informally. However, at any stage you can request, or we may decide to treat your complaint formally under our internal review process.

An internal review is conducted by the Chief Executive who will review the request and response, taking account of your complaint(s), and will respond in writing as soon as possible. The Information Commissioner's Office recommends that a response should be made in 20 working days. If we are unable to respond in this timeframe, we will inform you and provide a date by which you should expect to receive our response.

If, after the internal review, you remain dissatisfied then you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, the government regulator for the Freedom of Information Act. Details of how to contact the Information Commissioner's Office can be found at www.ico.org.uk
