14 October 2024

Sarah Taylor,
Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk
Letter sent by e-mail

Dear Commissioner,

Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk's draft 2023-24 Annual Report

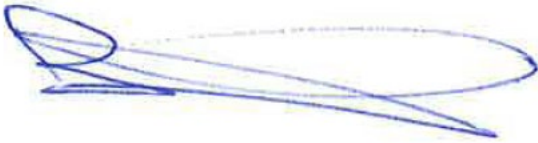

In accordance with Part 1, Chapter 4, paragraph 28 (4) of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011, I write to formally report that the Panel considered your draft Annual Report 2023-24 when it met today, on 14 October 2024.

In discussing the progress made against the priorities in the current Plan, the Panel recognised that, despite some significant challenges, individually and collectively there was excellent work taking place to ensure that Norfolk remains a safe county in which to live and work. I would be grateful if you would share the Panel's thanks to all police officers, staff and volunteers who put themselves on the frontline, daily, to keep us safe.

The Panel noted your emerging thoughts on the current Plan and the areas which could be built upon. We look forward to understanding your conclusions in more detail when you present your draft Plan to us in January 2025.

A record of the Panel's discussion will be published in the minutes in due course.

Yours sincerely,
