Dear Member of Public,

RE: Freedom of Information Request FOI/OPCCN/275

I am writing in connection with your email dated 6 October 2026, in which you requested the following information:

Please can you tell me if police officers from Norfolk are being transported to Gosport Hampshire, to take part in assisting the arrival of illegal immigrants.

Please can you tell me if this is so who pays for this. Is it Norfolk council tax payers.

Please can you tell me if the Police and Crime Commissioner knew this was happening

Please can you tell me if Norfolk Police are being used in Hampshire can the Police and Crime Commissioner order the return of said officers

Please can you tell me if Norfolk Police are being used in such a manner if the Police and Crime Commissioner agrees with the use of Norfolk Police Officers in this way.

Please can you tell if Norfolk Police Officers are being transported across the country how does this affect the Police manpower while these officers are assigned to this duty including overtime payments to other officers covering the officers in question.

I have reviewed our records and can advise the following:

There is no information held by the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk. However, information may be held by Norfolk Constabulary.

Yours sincerely

Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk

Internal Review

If you think we have not supplied information in accordance with Section 1 (the General Right of Access) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, or you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, then you should write within 40 calendar days of the date of the response to:

Mark Stokes
Chief Executive
Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk
Building 7
Falconers Chase
Wymondham
Norfolk
NR18 0WW

Telephone: 01953 424455
Email: opccn@norfolk.police.uk

If you are dissatisfied in any way with our response or the way we have handled your request, you can contact us by phone, email or in writing. We may, in the first instance, try and resolve your complaint informally. However, at any stage you can request, or we may decide to treat your complaint formally under our internal review process.

An internal review is conducted by the Chief Executive who will review the request and response, taking account of your complaint(s), and will respond in writing as soon as possible. The Information Commissioner's Office recommends that a response should be made in 20 working days. If we are unable to respond in this timeframe, we will inform you and provide a date by which you should expect to receive our response.

If, after the internal review, you remain dissatisfied then you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, the government regulator for the Freedom of Information Act. Details of how to contact the Information Commissioner's Office can be found at www.ico.org.uk
