Dear Member of Public,

RE: Freedom of Information Request FOI/OPCCN/277

I am writing in connection with your email dated 31 October 2026 which was forwarded to us on 2 November 2026, in which you requested the following information:

"I am making a request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I would be grateful if you could answer the following six questions:

1. How many police pension forfeiture applications have been made between 2020 and 2025?
2. How many successful police pension forfeitures have been made between 2020 and 2025?
3. What offences had been committed by officers in the successful forfeiture applications?
4. Were the reasons for their dismissal in misconduct hearings linked to the criminal cases, i.e. same/similar offences?
5. How many officers have been prosecuted for death by dangerous driving offences between 2020 and 2025?
6. Have any of these officers had pension forfeiture applications made against them?

I would appreciate your response by email within the statutory 20 working-day timeframe under the Freedom of Information Act 2000."

I have reviewed our records and can advise the following:

1. None.
2. None.

3. No information held.
4. No information held.
5. No information held (NB: this can be provided by Norfolk Constabulary who hold this data).
6. No information held.

Yours sincerely

Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk

Internal Review

If you think we have not supplied information in accordance with Section 1 (the General Right of Access) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, or you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, then you should write within 40 calendar days of the date of the response to:

Mark Stokes
Chief Executive
Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk
Building 7
Falconers Chase
Wymondham
Norfolk
NR18 0WW

Telephone: 01953 424455
Email: opccn@norfolk.police.uk

If you are dissatisfied in any way with our response or the way we have handled your request, you can contact us by phone, email or in writing. We may, in the first instance, try and resolve your complaint informally. However, at any stage you can request, or we may decide to treat your complaint formally under our internal review process.

An internal review is conducted by the Chief Executive who will review the request and response, taking account of your complaint(s), and will respond in writing as soon as possible. The Information Commissioner's Office recommends that a response should be made in 20 working days. If we are unable to respond in this timeframe, we will inform you and provide a date by which you should expect to receive our response.

If, after the internal review, you remain dissatisfied then you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, the government regulator for the Freedom of Information Act. Details of how to contact the Information Commissioner's Office can be found at www.ico.org.uk
