DECISION NO. 2017/21

REASON FOR SUBMISSION: For Decision

SUBMITTED TO: Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) for Norfolk

SUBJECT:

Funding and delivery of the Domestic Abuse Perpetrator Programme "Choosing to Change", in partnership with Walking with The Wounded.

SUMMARY:

In the PCC's Police and Crime Plan 2016-2020 he has set the commissioning and roll out of domestic abuse perpetrator programmes as a priority in the prevention of offending.

The Domestic Abuse Perpetrator Programme 'Choosing to Change' is a 27 week programme for Norfolk male veterans involved in intimate partner violence and is an education programme for men, perpetrating at all levels of risk.

Ormiston Trust will deliver this specialist, holistic, intervention programme on behalf of Walking With The Wounded.

Objectives:

- Help men understand that acts of violence/abuse are a means of controlling a partner's actions, thoughts, feelings. The programme will focus on the intent of abusive behaviour and belief systems from which acts of domestic violence operate.
- Increase men's understanding of the cause of their violence/abuse against partners by examining cultural & social contexts which support men's beliefs (eg: male privilege, inequality, gender stereotyping, double standards).

- Increase men's willingness to change abusive actions by examining the negative effects of abusive acts on relationships with partners, children, friends and themselves.
- Encourage men to become accountable to those they have hurt and acknowledge & learn to accept the impact of their actions on partners and others; to take steps to change.
- Provide practical information on how to change abusive behaviour, by exploring non-controlling & non-violent ways of relating to women.

A measurement tool has been developed, which will collate information on a database and be presented in a longitudinal end of programme evaluation report, compiled by Bristol University, capturing both qualitative and quantitative evidence.

As part of this grant agreement offer, Walking with the Wounded has secured £20,000 match funding from the Armed Forces Covenant Fund.

Governance arrangements are in place between Ormiston Trust and Walking with the Wounded; to ensure effective delivery and accountability of this OPCCN grant award.

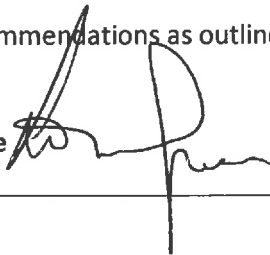

RECOMMENDATION:

The PCC for Norfolk supports the allocation of funding to the Domestic Abuse Perpetrator Programme – Choosing to Change.

OUTCOME/APPROVAL BY: PCC/CHIEF EXECUTIVE/CHIEF FINANCE OFFICER (Delete as appropriate)

DETAIL OF THE SUBMISSION

1. OBJECTIVE:

- 1.1 To approve funding to deliver one 27 week pilot domestic abuse perpetrator programme, targeting 10 Norfolk, male veterans which contributes to the safety of victims and children, a reduction in the frequency and seriousness of offending and to provide a role model for referred offenders and motivate them on the path to desistance
- 1.2 Clients will be supported and encouraged to achieve and maintain their goals leading to a more fulfilling lifestyle within their communities.

2. AREAS FOR CONSIDERATION:

- 2.1 In the PCC's Police and Crime Plan 2016-2020 he has identified the development, commissioning and roll out of domestic abuse perpetrator programmes as a priority in the prevention of offending;
- 2.2 Returning to civilian life from active duty is notoriously difficult for soldiers suffering from posttraumatic stress disorder, or PTSD. But in some cases, those difficulties are compounded when traumatised veterans become violent or emotionally abusive towards their family;
- 2.3 Within the county of Norfolk data suggests that 19% of Project Nova clients have been arrested for a domestic violence incident that over 23 % of partners of veterans have intimated that their partner has exhibited domestic violence tendencies;
- 2.4 Choosing to Change is a re-education programme for men to change their behaviour in order to increase the safety of women and children and reduce incidents of domestic abuse;
- 2.5 This fixed format, community based programme – which means men will not be mandated by a criminal court to attend – will provide a cross-agency, holistic response to veterans who have been exposed to physical and mental stress of serving in the armed forces. This support extends to families;
- 2.6 This ground breaking project is the first of its kind working with a veteran only cohort, across a rural county in conjunction with Project Nova.

3. OTHER OPTIONS CONSIDERED:

Not to fund pilot – this option has been rejected for two reasons:

- The PCC has pledged within his Police and Crime Plan 2016-2020 to work with partners in terms of developing, commissioning and the rolling out of domestic abuse perpetrator programme as a priority in the prevention of offending.
- Nationally there is much debate around the impact of rehabilitation programmes for domestic violence perpetrators. This ground breaking pilot will allow Norfolk to monitor the impact of such an intervention and will provide the countywide rehabilitation of offenders and criminal justice board's with a local evidence base in which to work from whilst preventing re-offending and victimisation.

4. STRATEGIC AIMS/OBJECTIVE SUPPORTED:

Programme design focuses on cutting crime and reducing reoffending and victimisation.

5. FINANCIAL AND OTHER RESOURCE IMPLICATIONS:

A total of £20,017 will be provided as a one off payment for one cycle intervention programme, broken down as below:

Item	2017/18
Total	£20,017

6. OTHER IMPLICATIONS AND RISKS:

None.
